

KNOW WHERE TO GO

When your child is sick or injured, you want the right care, and you want it quickly. University Children's Health gives you options.

PediExpress

offers walk-in visits with a board-certified doctor or an advanced-practice provider. It's generally half the cost of an ER visit.

The New Children's ER at University Hospital provides immediate care for even the most seriously ill kids, around the clock. Board-certified emergency medicine and pediatric specialists, and a team trained in children's emergencies, offer expert care in a kid-friendly environment.
